

5.1 Leadership and Commitment

- With a clear clause on commitment, top management no longer have an excuse to sit out of certification audits
- External auditors have a responsibility to check on this commitment through interviews and observation

